Preface

Discover the transformative power of biblical philosophies in a world filled with chaos. By embracing these humble concepts, you can experience extraordinary results. Tap into your inner spiritual wisdom to unlock the true meaning of these scriptures. I can attest to the life-changing impact of these philosophies throughout my journey. In the past, I relied on hope and prayer to make things happen, but progress could have been faster. However, after experiencing a spiritual awakening, I learned this method was limiting me. Instead, I was urged to create. This was a new concept for me, having been taught to pray for what I desired as a child. Now, I hear the Spirit telling me to "Create!" This was a profound realization. I have analyzed some scriptures and explained how this book can assist you in overcoming life's challenges and achieving freedom through the Word.

This text presents a fresh perspective on interpreting the Bible by using the guidance of the Holy Spirit and gaining insight from the Scriptures. John 1:1-4 (KJV) states, "In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. The same was in the beginning with God. All things were made by him; and without him was not any thing made that was made. In him was life; and the life was the light of men." As you reflect on this passage, feel the connection between Spirit and man, we are one with God! We must protect our state of mind to create with the Word through spiritual oratory. How we express ourselves influences the people we encounter, and our ability to communicate effectively is known as oratory. Additionally, the Encarta Dictionary defines oratory as a "place for private prayer or worship."

Let us explore the profound teachings of this book, break down any barriers that hold us back, and unleash our spiritual potential as creators. Our spiritual gifts enable us to read, hear, understand, and speak the Word with confidence and authority. Paul writes in 1 Corinthians 2:4-5 (KJV), "And my speech and my preaching was not with enticing words of man's wisdom, but in demonstration of the Spirit and of power: That your faith should not stand in the wisdom of men, but in power of God," Being aware of your identity and the source of your wisdom is empowering. As the creator, God endows the Man of God with the ability to create. Everything you wish to create is already within you! It was later affirmed in Psalms 82:6 (KJV), "I have said, ye are gods; and all of you are children of the most High.

According to Genesis 1:26 (KJV), we were made in the image and likeness of God, gifted with abilities, and given dominion over everything. Genesis 1:28 (KJV) states that we have the talent to multiply our fruits. Despite these blessings, we often fail to utilize our spiritual gifts. As children of God, we have the power to create anything our hearts and mind can conceive through our faith in the Word. Reflect on this message and ask yourself if you are fully operating as the child of God you were born to be.

Many of us wait for things to happen, but imagine how different your life could be if you fully believed in your natural gifts and abilities to create the world you desire. Your mind holds infinite power! Today, I encourage you to take a leap of faith and use your spiritual gifts to build the life you've always wanted. Believe that everything you long for is already within your reach, and watch as it manifests. We are truly blessed to possess this incredible power.

What if you could connect with the Spirit to access life's answers? What if all you've been searching for has always been right inside you? How can you explain the synchronicities that manifest when you pray? Aren't you curious as to how any of this works?

Most chapters begin with a Bible verse and a philosophy highlighting our divine potential to create and lead a fulfilling life. An action plan and spiritual insight close each chapter. Remember, you hold the power! Now, let's begin exploring!

Chapter One

The Thirst For Wisdom

Proverbs 1

Bible Verse: A wise man will hear and increase learning; and a man of understanding shall attain unto wise counsels: To understand a proverb, and their dark sayings. The fear of the Lord is the beginning of knowledge: but fools despise wisdom and instruction. My son, hear the instruction of thy father, and forsake not the law of thy mother. – Proverbs 1:5-8 (KJV)

Bible Philosophy: Acquiring wisdom involves seeking knowledge from reliable and intelligent sources and using discipline to apply that knowledge toward a greater purpose. A deep understanding of the world comes from connecting the Spirit and mind through this process. The proverb highlights the importance of following guidelines for gaining knowledge, wisdom, and understanding, which can be fully grasped by reading the entire chapter from a spiritual perspective. It also warns against the negative consequences of rejecting this philosophy.

Action:

1. Surround yourself with intelligent people who love to share their knowledge. You can also learn valuable information from videos, blogs, and books. It's like adding a superfood to your intellectual diet.
2. Develop the skills that allow you to become a good listener and the ability to recognize keywords and understand the message. Sometimes, advice may be given in riddles or questions, which requires careful discernment.
3. Learn to establish the discipline of listening before talking; this will take maturity and is the primary key to increasing discernment, wisdom, and oratory.

Insight: God's Spirit induces the blessings of these revelations and manifests the power to create. Your mental abilities are significant in determining your success, and your discernment will guide you toward making wise decisions. It's essential to continue learning and seeking knowledge to improve oneself.

Chapter Two

Prosperous Meditation

Psalms 1

Bible Verse: Blessed is the man that walketh not in the counsel of the ungodly, nor standeth in the way of sinners, nor sitteth in the seat of the scornful. But his delight is in the law of the LORD; and in his law doth he meditate day and night. And he shall be like a tree planted by the rivers of water, that bringeth forth his fruit in his season; his leaf also shall not wither, and whatsoever he doeth shall prosper. – Psalms 1:1-3 (KJV)

Bible Philosophy: To attract blessings into your life and stay focused on your goals, it's important to distance yourself from negativity and avoid dwelling on negative thoughts. Instead, you should focus on positive thinking and avoid getting caught up in negative conversations or emotions. One way to increase self-awareness is to practice meditation with positive affirmations, which can help align your goals with your strengths and abilities. By consistently focusing on your desires, your mind opens to new ideas that can lead to abundant possibilities.

Action:

- 1.Refrain from getting caught up in negative conversations, whether with others or in your mind. Our inner thoughts control our outward results.
- 2.Practice meditation regularly to strengthen your focus and awareness. Meditate daily for at least 15 minutes to start and increase at your own pace.
- 3.Practice visualization exercises when meditating to strengthen desire and belief, which produces stronger faith.

Insight: As we journey through life, our beliefs flow like a river, carving through the landscape of our thoughts. Our thoughts hold the power to shape and transform our beliefs, leading us down new and exciting paths of growth and evolution. You can bring anything your heart desires to life with the power of positive thinking. Begin to focus on what you desire wholeheartedly, and the law of the Lord will attract that back to you in your season with prosperous glory. The longer you can hold your thoughts during meditation, the faster your manifestations happen.

Chapter Three

Our Image And Likeness

Genesis 1

Bible Verse: And God said, Let us make man in our image, after our likeness: and let them have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the air, and over the cattle, and over all the earth, and over every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth. So God created man in his own image, in the image of God created he him; male and female created he them. And God Blessed them, and God said unto them, Be fruitful, and multiply, and replenish the earth, and subdue it: and have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the air, and over every living thing that moveth upon the earth. – Genesis 1:26-28 (KJV)

Bible Philosophy: As a creation of God, we are born to create and dominate! God put the power of masculine and feminine energy in us. We use these spiritual energies when we begin to govern our manifestations. Here's the short version. The masculine energy gives us the power to construct and become stronger, representing our faith.

The feminine energy allows us to nurture and develop, representing hope. By harnessing these energies effectively, we can triumph over obstacles and manifest our desires with divine power and certainty.

Action:

1. Be aware of the energy that flows through your mind at all times. Meditate with feminine energy and create with masculine energy.
2. Govern your thoughts with authority and guide your words gracefully (oratory). We create with words!
3. Affirm your dual energies and practice their daily use (faith and hope).

Insight: Our manifestations are evidence of the Spirit interceding, empowering us to shape our destiny through the Word. Remember, God created with his Word, so you must ensure your oratory displays your spiritual connection to creation. Increase your faith in the Lord, which gives you divinity and power in your words. What we manifest comes from the mind of God!

Chapter Four

Renewing Of Your Mind

Romans 12

Bible Verse: And be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God. – Romans 12:2 (KJV) Be not wise in your own conceits. – Romans 12:16 (KJV)

Bible Philosophy: We must repent and renew our minds through meditation to achieve harmony with God and avoid conforming to this world. If our thoughts no longer align with the Spirit, we should pause and refocus. These practices will help us know when we are off track and initiate our restoration process. Remember, pride will not lead us toward spiritual guidance.

Action:

1. Ask God for forgiveness and to renew your mind.
2. Meditate daily and regain focus on positive thinking.
3. Thirst for wisdom (read, write, listen), get inspired!
4. Govern your awareness and focus your attention on the Lord.
5. Affirm your kinship with God and recognize your divinity.

Insight: Finally brethren, whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report; if there be any virtue, and if there be any praise, think on these things. – Philippians 4:8 (KJV). Give praise that God created you with perfection, and the will of God is to bring you back to harmony, which lies in the bond between Spirit and Man, not the world. Make pride disappear by restoring the connection between you and God. Amen.

Chapter Five

Faith

Hebrews 11

Bible Verse: Now faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen. For by it the elders obtained a good report. Through faith we understand that the worlds were framed by the word of God, so that things which are seen were not made of things which do appear. – Hebrews 11: 1-3 (KJV)

Bible Philosophy: Faith is the key to unlocking possibilities. Our belief system has a tremendous influence in shaping our reality. As we set out to manifest our desires, the connection between the Spirit and mind transforms our hopes into tangible possessions. We are the architects of our destinies, starting with the thoughts in our minds that the Spirit influences. Our thoughts have the power to shape our world, and our faith determines what is possible. We no longer have to hope and pray; we can create through faith. God gave us the wisdom and understanding to manifest through the Spirit; this is when God and Man unite to create as one.

Action:

1. Develop self-motivation so there is no outside force to start or stop you.
2. Start working with puzzles to boost your ability to turn chaos into peace, building patience and vision.
3. Understand that faith works like exercising. The more you practice it, the stronger it gets.

Insight: But without faith it is impossible to please him: for he that cometh to God must believe that he is, and that he is a rewarder of them that diligently seek him. – Hebrews 11:6 (KJV). Faith that you are aligned with God and seek divine guidance can induce significant rewards. Through our imagination, we can view the world through God's eyes and use our beliefs to create. If you have strong faith, your creations will come to fruition faster, leading to a more fulfilling life. The teachings of God help us comprehend "the substance of things hoped for," and our thoughts and beliefs are brought to life by the Spirit through the Word.

Chapter Six

Imagination

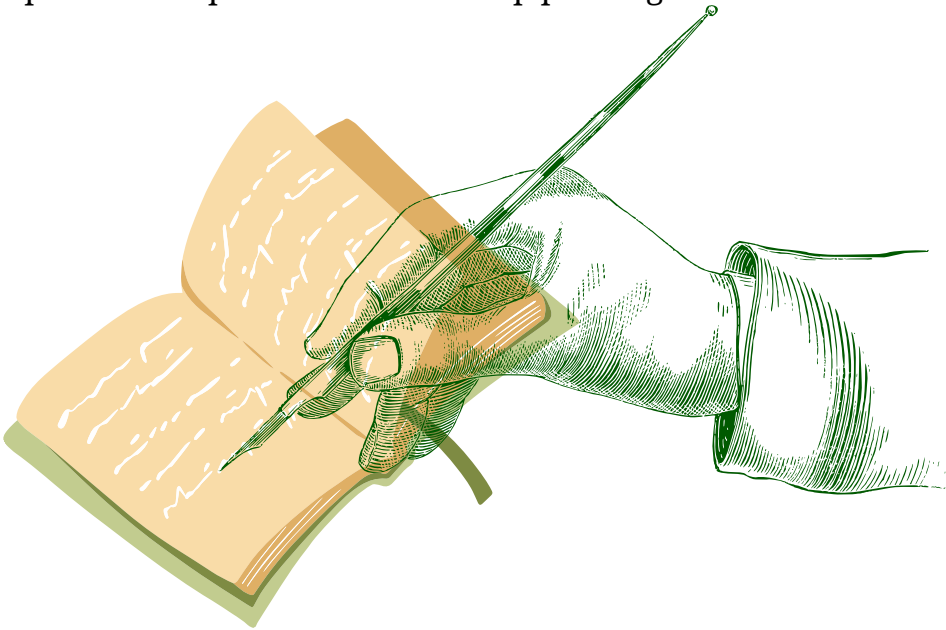

1 Chronicles 28

Bible Verse: And thou Solomon my son, know the God of thy father, and serve him with a perfect heart and with a willing mind: for the LORD searcheth all hearts, and understandeth all the imaginations of the thoughts: if thou seek him, he will be found of thee; but if thou forsake him, he will cast thee off for ever. – 1 Chronicles 28:9 (KJV)

Bible Philosophy: Our deepest desires are born in our hearts, and we envision how they can materialize into reality. We contemplate how accomplishing them would make us feel and the position we would be in once we attain them. This verse emphasizes that creation originates from the heart, the source of our passion. The Spirit examines our hearts to discover our desires, and when we find God in our hearts, our passions begin to take shape, just as God created man. Our heartfelt intentions are the foundation for our manifestations, turning our imagination into reality.

The key is to imagine the end result in our minds to make our aspirations more attainable and strive towards them with the help of the Spirit, which provides us with vivid images. Visualize achieving the objective and rejoicing in the victory; reverse thinking indicates our capacity to fulfill our desires. Also, as you step out on faith, your imagination will provide the perseverance to keep pushing.

Action:

1. Draw your vision out on paper or write down what you envisioned.
2. Make a detailed plan of action according to your imagination.
3. Don't wait; act immediately! Faith without works is dead – James 2:20 (KJV)

Insight: Our imagination serves as our inner prophet for what God has planned for us. We must have faith in the potential of these visions coming to fruition and trust that God will provide clarity. As Matthew 6:10 (KJV) says, "thy will be done in earth as it is in heaven." Following God's guidance can lead us to our destiny. If we doubt ourselves or hesitate to take action, our dreams may remain unfulfilled. Therefore, we must have faith and use imagination to realize our visions.

Chapter Seven

Enter The Kingdom

Matthew 18

Bible Verse: And said, Verily I say unto you, Except ye be converted, and become as little children, ye shall not enter into the kingdom of heaven. Whosoever therefore shall humble himself as this little child, the same is greatest in the kingdom of heaven. – Matthew 18: 3-4 (KJV)

Bible Philosophy: This verse reminds us of our pure and unbridled faith as children. As kids, we never believed in limitations and thought we could achieve anything without understanding the effort required. We held a sense of unwavering optimism that anything was possible. Regarding our dreams and aspirations, we should adopt this same level of belief. During moments of visualization, God shows us what is already possible and connects our desires with the Spirit.

Action:

1. When your imagination starts running like a child, note your current state of mind and how it makes you feel.
2. Get excited and have a child-like curiosity about your vision. Get to it!
3. If doubt arises, affirm your oneness with God, and remember your heavenly treasures are already here!

Insight: The person who quiets the doubts of the flesh controls the belief system that the Spirit uses to create. To succeed in creating, it is crucial to have child-like determination and not consider failure an option. Connect with the Spirit inside you, which resides in the kingdom of heaven where all your treasures are stored, and access the power of creation. Strong belief gets you into the kingdom.

Chapter Eight

Creation

Isaiah 65

Bible Verse: For, behold, I create new heavens and a new earth: and the former shall not be remembered, nor come into mind. But be ye glad and rejoice for ever in that which I create: for behold, I create Jerusalem a rejoicing, and her people a joy. And I will rejoice in Jerusalem, and joy in my people: and the voice of weeping shall be no more heard in her, nor the voice of crying. – Isaiah 65: 17-19 (KJV)

I believe in you

Bible Philosophy: To effect a change, one must possess the courage to confront the unknown, step into the darkness, and create the light. A mindset change is needed to create a new belief system that brings everlasting joy and the blessing of peace. By relinquishing the burdens of the past and embracing unknown experiences, we can bear witness to a rekindled spirit within ourselves. That he who blesseth himself in the earth shall bless himself in the God of truth; because the former troubles are forgotten, and because they are hid from mine eyes. – Isaiah 65:16 (KJV).

Action:

1. Start thanking God for the new changes in your life before you even see the changes (faith-building).
2. Show gratitude for overcoming your flaws to build your self-confidence.
3. Recognize the light you hold and your new power. Be thankful for what God has put in you!
4. Take an oath to be truthful with yourself in everything you do (this is blessing yourself!)

Insight: We must forgive ourselves and release any pain from the past to form a fresh perspective and align with God. Dwelling on past events hinders our ability to create a better future. Instead, try to celebrate and allow the Spirit to bless you rather than focus on your pain. You can experience abundant love and happiness with a positive attitude. The key is to create a better you before you can create a better life. "With God all things are possible," Matthew 19:26 (KJV).

Chapter Nine

The Anointing

Ephesians 3

Bible Verse: If ye have heard of the dispensation of the grace of God which is given me to you-ward: How that by revelation he made known unto me the mystery; (as I wrote afore in few words, Whereby, when ye read, ye may understand my knowledge in the mystery of Christ) Which in other ages was not made known unto the sons of men, as it is now revealed unto his holy apostles and prophets by the Spirit; – Ephesians 3: 2-5 (KJV)

Bible Philosophy: God will reveal through his Word that we inherited the same anointing described in the text about Christ. As a result, we possess the mind of the Creator and are blessed with limitless potential. By studying the Word, we can connect with God and unlock the mystery of our divine nature. Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus: Who, being in the form of God, thought it not robbery to be equal with God: – Philippians 2:5-6 (KJV).

Action:

1. Acknowledge your divinity and connection with God.
2. Listen to the Spirit within and have an open heart. "I Am Creation: Therefore I Create."
3. Take control of your creative power! Jesus answered them, Is it not written in your law, I said, Ye are gods! – John 10: 34 (KJV).

Insight: I encourage you to have faith in yourself and your ability to impact the lives of those around you positively. The workings of the Spirit can sometimes feel complex, but accepting its presence within you can bring about a profound transformation. God has blessed your mind with the Holy Spirit's divine presence, manifesting your thoughts and words. Your faith and the insights you gain during meditation or dreams are channels through which this divine presence can flow. May you always be guided by the Holy Spirit's wisdom and blessings. Amen.

Chapter Ten

The Secret Garden

Genesis 2: Tree Of Life

Bible Philosophy: The Tree of Life is a powerful symbol representing the infinite spiritual possibilities we encounter throughout our lives. As we journey through life, we experience ebbs and flows, ups and downs, and expand and contract, allowing us to move easily through life's challenges. During difficult or "down" times, we can reflect on how we got to this point and focus on our purpose in life. It is essential to remember that we are the creators of our destiny, which leads us to question why we face challenging circumstances. It is easy to forget that these moments are temporary and not permanent, but if we aren't careful, we can become stuck or frustrated. However, these low moments allow us to recharge and prepare for the high points in life. Reflecting during these moments, we may discover divine guidance that can carry us from the ebbs to the flows of life.

It takes practicing patience to become intuitive and aware of our state of mind during these low moments. Still, it is an opportunity to be grateful for our journey and appreciate our accomplishments. As children of the Most High God, we should not suffer needlessly. Our purpose is to spread love and positivity throughout the world. Reflection, gratitude, wisdom, and productivity are essential ingredients in becoming the light of the world. Instead of seeing low moments as suffering, we should view them as an opportunity for reflection and rejuvenation. Witness how God strengthens us and prepares us for our next season. By eating from the Tree of Life, we accumulate the wisdom necessary for living a life of abundance. Just as we eat, digest, and move physically, we must also spiritually engage in reflection, digestion, and action. It is that simple. Therefore, let us embrace every moment of our lives, both the highs and the lows and continue to grow in our spiritual journey towards enlightenment.

Genesis 2: Tree Of Knowledge

Bible Philosophy: The Tree of Knowledge of Good and Evil symbolizes great significance to our spiritual power. To simplify it, the Tree of Knowledge of Good and Evil represents our perceptions, while the Tree of Life represents our endless possibilities. As everything has an opposite, we categorize our options based on how we perceive them. Our knowledge shapes our perceptions, and we tend to see things as good or evil, positive or negative. When we consume from the Tree of Knowledge of Good and Evil, we form our perceptions and create our reality based on whether we see things positively or negatively. Thoughts are neutral until we decide their outcome.

It is within our power to choose how we perceive situations. We can either view them positively or negatively. Issues only exist if we acknowledge them as such. The mind has conscious and subconscious sides; without spiritual awareness, false assumptions get programmed into our subconscious. These assumptions turn into beliefs that operate on autopilot, clouding our perception. False narratives can misguide us, and we change good possibilities into problems. As a result, we lose hope in God's promises and struggle to regain our footing in the flow of life.

It's essential to digest thoughts (good and evil) carefully. Just as we chew food thoroughly for better digestion, we need to do the same with understanding to become more aware and enhance our perception. Surrounding ourselves with positivity and quickening our intuition can help us tap into the power and awareness of the Spirit of God. By doing so, we can better understand the Tree of Knowledge of Good and Evil and its significance in our spiritual journey.

Where is my progress?

The second river, Gihon, means bursting forth. As wisdom increases, we are more determined to seek opportunities to connect with others and offer support when needed. We are so honored as disciples to become engaged with fellowshiping that we get excited to lift someone in need. Even if our efforts are confidential, the sense of gratification and fulfillment remains.

The third river, Hiddekel, means rapid. As your wisdom expands and excitement builds, staying connected spiritually is essential. Many thoughts will race through your mind, and it's crucial to distinguish between what comes from the Spirit and what stems from the ego before communicating your persuasive oratory.

The fourth river, the Euphrates, means fruitfulness. It's fulfilling to witness when our words positively impact the lives of those around us. Whether someone is struggling with pain, seeking career advancement, or seeking guidance in their relationships, our speech can make a significant difference. Our words can manifest positive outcomes and deepen our connection with God, displaying the fruitfulness of our labor.

Lakes and oceans experience high and low tides, but the "living water" constantly receives infinite energy from God. The garden symbolizes the mind, and Eden represents peace, powered by four energy paths. Our mindset influences our speech, creating harmony and activating spiritual connections.

Life is like a battery, with positive and negative sides. The negative keeps us grounded, while the positive side gives us energy. This approach ensures we receive blessings and maintain high spiritual energy to be fruitful and multiply. As the light of the world, we should strive for enough power to shine brightly.

Seedtime

Matthew 13

Bible Verse: Another parable put he forth unto them, saying, The kingdom of heaven is like to a grain of mustard seed, which a man took, and sowed in his field: Which indeed is the least of all seeds: but when it is grown, it is the greatest among all herbs, and becometh a tree, so that the birds of the air come and lodge in the branches thereof. – Matthew 13:31-32 (KJV)

Bible Philosophy: Remember that God supplies everything! Every dream or vision you have is like a mustard seed. Your belief sets those seeds into the germination phase, and you begin to see movement in your life because of your faith. Your intense desire begins the rooting process, and The Spirit lays out the blueprint for accomplishing your dreams. Your actions make the seeds grow into reality, and your persistence gets you to the finish line. When the process is complete, your cup will be running over with blessings because of your determination, faithfulness, and obedience. You're blessed to be a blessing, so you share what God has manifested in your life with your loved ones.

Action:

1. Believe in yourself because you are a child of God.
2. Act on every idea that flows through your mind.
3. Don't procrastinate!
4. Allow yourself to imagine greatness and abundance; you are divine!

Insight: The seeds we plant into the kingdom profoundly impact our outcomes. It becomes a reality when we wholeheartedly believe in something and have faith in it. Our belief system strengthens as we trust the Spirit to fulfill our desires. Blessings multiply and overflow into the lives of others, creating a rich abundance for all. Be careful of your thoughts when you begin fertilizing your seeds.

The Harvest

Proverbs 10

Bible Verse: He becometh poor that dealeth with a slack hand: but the hand of the diligent maketh rich. He that gathereth in summer is a wise son: but he that sleepeth in harvest is a son that causeth shame. – Proverbs 10:4-5 (KJV)

Bible Philosophy: The lazy person receives according to their lack of action, just as the diligent receives from their valent efforts. Meditate on your desires and take the leap of faith; your harvest will come in its due season. John 3:27 (KJV) states, "A man can receive nothing except it be given him from Heaven."

Action:

1. Always take advantage of the opportunities you have in front of you.
2. Become persistent in prayer and meditation.
3. Work diligently on your goals!
4. Stay focused and determined on completing your tasks.
5. Your movement influences God's movement!

Seeking God Through Meditation

Insight: Achieving spiritual wealth involves a change in mindset rather than just hard work. While some focus on unproductive activities, others strive to achieve their goals through spiritual guidance and determination. To find wealth, one must seek God. Meditation generates manifestation, so listen to God's voice to receive your blessings. Remember, there is a season for everything, including your harvest, so don't rush it. You will reap the rewards if you plant your seeds properly during the appropriate time. Amen.

The Resting Place

Mathew 11

Bible Verse: Come unto me, all ye that labour and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you, and learn of me; for I am meek and lowly in heart: and ye shall find rest unto your souls. For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light. – Matthew 11:28-30 (KJV)

Bible Philosophy: Here is where you can find peace and balance in your spirit. After putting in hard work, you may become exhausted and need rest. Explore this type of meditation, where you congratulate yourself for being disciplined and steadfast in your faith journey. Also, you can be grateful for God's anointing of your mind. You'll understand how it was all possible as your mind becomes still. This is mindful meditation time.

Action:

1. Galatians 6:4, "But let every man prove his work, and then shall he have rejoicing in himself alone, and not in another."
2. Galatians 4:9, "And let us not be weary in well doing; for in due season we shall reap, if we faint not."

Insight: We sometimes put a heavy load on ourselves and must talk to God about releasing our pressure. Your meditation time produces the peace you need and provides the answers to all of your questions. Those things, which ye have both learned, and received, and heard, and see in me, do: and the God of peace shall be with you. – Philippians 4:9 (KJV). After this meditation, you will feel confident that God's peace of mind and power are flowing through you. The omnipresent Spirit is constantly present to guide, renew, and prepare blessings for you. Amen.

About The Author

The Spirit Disciple

The Spirit Disciple is a pen name inspired by the fascination of how information comes so freely when writing. Meditation and mindfulness enlightened by the Spirit produce the writing style and flow of topics before putting pen to paper. It was bliss knowing that every time words came through his mind, they created imagery of layout as well; the flow was seamless. That was the moment of truth as to what author's name was to be written and to engage the audience with his writing style fully. A name is influential; it describes a person and sets the tone for direction in life.

The Spirit Disciple was born and raised in Atlanta, GA, and loves reading, writing, and herbalism. Words became an infatuation in his childhood, liking reading the encyclopedia and the dictionary. As he would say, "Words give a description to live," which is why reading became his hobby. He gets excitement out of learning about different plants, studying their cycles of life, and their medicinal properties, evolving into a lifelong journey, and the reason behind becoming certified in natural medicine.

After becoming a husband and father, his most precious life accomplishments, then a business owner, he decided to combine his passions and begin sharing the wisdom from over 20 years of experience with the world. Getting certified as a spiritual life coach is one of the most rewarding attainments of his career and will continue to be a great accomplishment on his spiritual journey. Helping people has always been his goal, so writing these books and sharing his knowledge as an herbalist has become the spiritual path that brings his career the most joy and meaning. The end goal is to provide the necessary tools for others to reach spiritual enlightenment, love themselves, and pass the information and love on to their family and friends in need. Amen.
